

Pilgrim's Progress (2): Christiana follows Christian (pp. 201-215)

Page numbers correspond to the Whitaker paperback edition, ISBN 0-88368-096-3

I. The Second Apology (pp. 390-397)

The first objection to Bunyan's second book might be _____

The answer? "'Tis true, some have, of late, to _____" and have even "_____" but...

The second objection might come from those who wish Bunyan "_____ life and limb"

The answer? "Fright not thyself, my Book, for such _____ Are nothing else but _____ fears."

bugbears = a imaginary creature (invented to frighten children)

noddy = a fool or simpleton

Bunyan's first book had already been welcomed in France, _____, _____, _____ and elsewhere.

The third objection comes from those who find "His words and stories are so _____"

Bunyan sends his second book "To _____, not _____" whose spiritual minds will discern his meaning and will find his metaphors an aid to memory.

The fourth objection comes from "some love not the _____ of your first: _____ they count it; throw't away as _____."

Bunyan bids Christiana in response to _____ Yea, may this second Pilgrim yield that _____

As may with each good Pilgrim's fancy suit;

And may it some _____, that go astray,

To turn their feet and _____ to the right way,

II. Mr. Sagacity "an aged gentleman came by"

sagacity = keen intelligence, shrewdness

"When [Pilgrim] was here, he was Fool in every man's mouth, yet now he is gone, he is
_____."

What makes men curse preachers in their life and build monuments to them after their death? _____

III. Christiana "do you hear anything of his wife?"

Mr. Sagacity assays to give Bunyan an eyewitness account, "for I was upon the spot at the _____".

What circumstance began to work on Christiana's mind and bring conviction for her former ways?

Christiana: "I have sinned away _____."

That night Christiana had a _____.

What three things did Christiana see in her dream?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Secret: “the Merciful One has sent me to tell thee, that he is a God _____ to _____.”

Christiana: “My children, let us pack up, and _____ to the _____ that leads to the Celestial country”

IV. Neighbors “two of the women that were Christiana’s neighbors”

Christiana’s neighbours were astonished at her greeting, “for this kind of _____ they used not to _____.”

The eldest was Mrs. _____, she was “_____ to him that met Christian upon the Hill of Difficulty, and would have had him _____ for fear of the lions.”

Christiana: “_____ me not, my neighbor: I have now a _____ put into my hands to get _____.”

Her young companion was named _____, who could not join her companion in reviling Christiana because:

1. _____
2. _____

Mrs. Timorous has four friends, who comment on Christiana’s “rash” plans:

Mrs. Know-nothing: “Do you think she will go?” “Aye... my great argument ... the _____ she was like to meet ... [is what will] put her _____ on her journey.”

Mrs. Bat’s-Eyes: [she is blind] “I see, if [her husband] were here again, ... [he would] never run so many _____ for _____.”

Mrs. Inconsiderate: “Away with such _____ from the _____.”

Mrs. Light-Mind: “Come, put this kind of _____ away.” Why? _____

This remark is a thrice repeated theme in the chapter: “The bitter goes before the sweet; yea, and forasmuch as it doth, it makes the sweet the sweeter.”

What is the bitter? _____

What is the sweet? _____

What is the first trouble Christiana encounters? _____